ALL MY RELATIONS ARTS HONORS ARTISTS WITH AN EXHIBITION & REUNION GALA

Minneapolis, Minnesota — Native American Community Development Institute (NACDI) and All My Relations Arts (AMRA) presents Foresight: 20 years of Mitakuye Oyasin exhibition at the AMRA Gallery and A 20 Year Alumni Reunion Gala, honoring all past (AMRA) exhibiting artists at The Hook & Ladder Theater and Lounge on Saturday, January 25th from 6-10 PM.

About the Exhibition

Foresight: 20 years of Mitakuye Oyasin is a retrospective highlighting artist of the past 20 years that have been featured at All My Relations Arts gallery. Bringing together 20 invited artists, many of whom began their careers within the All My Relations Arts, to celebrate the foresight of gallery founder, Shirlee Stone. With the mission to raise the visibility and value of Native American art as well as represent the diversity and strength of the artists it represents, All My Relations Arts gallery has explored the Native experience of the past, present, and future. The exhibition is on view now until February 2, 2020.

Featured Artists Dyani White Hawk, Rory Wakemup, Graci Horne, Jim Denomie, Gwen Westerman, Andrea Carlson, Gordon Coons, Aza Erdrich, Jonathan Thunder, and more.

Angela Two Stars, the Curator, and Director of All My Relations Arts shares, “We are so thankful to all the artists that have exhibited at All My Relations Arts over the last 20 years. The alumni artists of AMRA is our mission personified. The strength of contemporary Native artists is embodied in the alumni group of artists of AMRA. We are so grateful that they have shared their work with us and have contributed to the gallery’s strength as a prominent feature on the American Indian Cultural Corridor.”

Reunion Gala

The event will provide an opportunity for every alumni artist to be celebrated at this first of its kind reunion gala. This event is $20 for the general public, and free for alumni artists. Traditional Indigenous food and drinks will be provided by local Indigenous chef, Yazzie the Chef.

All My Relations Arts (AMRA) operates the All My Relations Gallery, Minnesota's premier American Indian owned and operated contemporary fine arts gallery. Located on Franklin Avenue in Minneapolis, the gallery resides within the heart of the American Indian Cultural Corridor. AMRA presents four fine art exhibits throughout the year, as well as hosting tours, presentations, and programs.

The focus of AMRA is to provide the people of the Twin Cities, greater Minnesota, and beyond consistently high-quality exposure to Native American fine arts. As an initiative of the Native American Community Development Institute (NACDI), All My Relations Arts serves a very distinct role in NACDI's community development work, providing the public with education about American Indian history, culture, and contemporary experiences through the arts.
